

Internet Acceptable Use Policy

Introduction

The Internet is an essential element for education, business and social interaction. Internet use is part of the revised curriculum and a necessary tool for education. The purpose of Internet use in Killaloe Convent Primary School is to raise educational standards, to promote pupil achievement, to support the professional work of staff and to enhance the school's management, information and business administration systems.

This Acceptable Use Policy will address all rights, privileges, responsibilities and sanctions associated with access to and use of the Internet in Killaloe Convent Primary School.

The AUP will be revised regularly.

Aims

The aim of our Acceptable Use Policy is to ensure that pupils, teachers and parents will benefit from the learning opportunities offered by the school's Internet resources in a safe, responsible and effective manner.

Internet use and access is considered a school resource and privilege. Therefore, if the school AUP is not adhered to, this privilege will be withdrawn and appropriate sanctions – as outlined in the AUP - will be imposed.

Staff/People employed by the school/student teachers/volunteers etc who breach the AUP may be dealt with by the Board of Management's disciplinary procedures and/or child protection procedures. *See School's Child Protection Policy.

Strategies

The school will employ a number of strategies in order to maximise learning opportunities and reduce risks associated with the Internet.

These strategies are as follows:

General

Internet sessions will always be supervised.

Systems including filtering software will be used in order to minimise the risk of exposure to inappropriate material.

Students will not have access to passwords.

Students and teachers will be provided with training in the area of Internet safety.

Uploading and downloading of non-approved software will not be permitted.

Virus protection software will be used and updated on a regular basis.

The use of personal memory sticks, CD-ROMs or DVDs in school requires permission and all external software must be scanned with anti-virus software before use.

Students will observe good “netiquette” (i.e. etiquette on the Internet) at all times and will not undertake any actions that may bring the school into disrepute.

World Wide Web

Sites that the children use in school will be previewed by their teacher before use.

Students will use the Internet for educational purposes and/or as deemed appropriate by the teacher e.g. as a reward or for golden time etc.

Teachers and students will be familiar with copyright issues relating to online learning.

Students will never disclose or publicise personal information.

All Internet users in Killaloe Convent Primary School should be aware that any usage, including distributing or receiving information, school-related or personal, may be monitored.

Students and staff (including people employed by the school/contractors etc) will not visit Internet sites that contain obscene, illegal, hateful or otherwise objectionable materials.

Children should inform their teacher if they inadvertently access information that makes them in any way uncomfortable. In the unlikely event that this should happen, the children will be reassured and their parents will be notified. Also, where possible, the offending URL will be noted and the service provider will be informed.

Email

The teacher should set one e-mail address for classes for work online with partner schools, if so required.

Emails will be opened by a teacher and printed for children who are participating in such projects.

Students will not send or receive by any means any material that is illegal, obscene, defamatory or any material that is intended to annoy or intimidate another person.

Students will not reveal their own or other people’s personal details, such as addresses, telephone numbers or pictures.

Students will never arrange a meeting with someone they only know through emails or the internet.

Students will note that sending and receiving email attachments is subject to permission from their teacher.

Microsoft Teams for Pupils

Parents/guardians will have access to the password / code and will be expected to monitor their child’s use of the online platform when used at home. During school time Teams is continuously monitored by the class teacher. Individual teachers may use Teams as a sharing and collaborative platform. Teams must be used for educational purposes only and be used in line with all other school policies.

YouTube

Staff will only have access to YouTube whilst using teacher laptops. This is for teacher access only for educational purposes. Pupils are not allowed access to YouTube. Teachers will be mindful of adverts whilst using YouTube.

Internet Chat

Students will only have access to closed chat rooms, discussion forums or other electronic communication forums that have been approved by the school.

Chat rooms, discussion forums and other electronic communication forums will only be used for educational purposes and will always be supervised.

Students will not have access to closed chat room passwords.

Usernames will be used to avoid disclosure of identity.

Meetings with someone organised via Internet chat rooms and discussion forums is forbidden.

School Website / Facebook page

Pupils will be given the opportunity to publish projects, artwork and school work on the World Wide Web with parental permission.

The publication of student work will be co-ordinated by a teacher.

Pupils' work will appear in an educational context on Web pages with a copyright notice prohibiting the copying of such work without written permission.

Digital photographs, audio or video clips of individual students will not be published on the school website/Facebook page when possible. Instead, photographs, audio and video clips will focus on group activities and these will be published with permission using the school's standard permission form. No student has access to the school's Facebook Page. This page is monitored closely by the teachers of Killaloe Convent Primary School.

Personal pupil information including name, home address and contact details will be omitted from school web pages.

Pupils will continue to own the copyright on any work published.
